

1274

Fourteenth general Council
at Lyons.

1274 11 July

Birth of Robert the Bruce later to become King of Scotland (1306)

1274

1912 Dates J-BK

Scholastics or Schoolmen

Were Christian Aristotelians who taught in the schools of Europe from 11th cen. until Reformation. Their work was characterized by the authority of the Church, the influence of Aristotle and the Arabian commentators, and by a stiff, formal, and pedantic mode of discussion. The greatest of the schoolmen were ABELARD (1079-1142), AQUINAS (1325-

ca 1227-1274, RONS SCOTUS (1265? - 1308?)

(the founder of Scotism) and his pupil William of Ockham (1270-1347), the reviver of nominalism

1274

Kublai Khan's attack on Japan was thwarted by a storm at sea.

6 July 1274

Council of LYONS
Emperor VIII (MICHAEL VIII)

came to terms with Papal legats
of Pope Gregory X.

In the name of the Emperor Michael VIII, the Grand Logothetes, George Acropolites swore to acknowledge, not only the papal primacy, but the Roman faith, and the ~~ecclesiastical~~ ecclesiastical members of the Byzantine legation, the former

Patricius Germanus and the metropolitan, Theophanes of Neocaesarea, also signed the imperial declaration